

INTRODUCING THE ADJUDICATOR

LYNN BAINS

Lynn grew up in New York and in the mid 70s moved to Lanarkshire, becoming the first Principal Teacher in Drama in the county.

After five years at Airdrie Academy she took on a new course at Kirkcaldy College of Technology (now Adam Smith College), the first of its kind on Scotland.

Lynn is much in demand as the American accent/dialect coach for The Royal Lyceum Theatre, Dundee Rep, Perth Theatre, Pitlochry Festival Theatre and for other companies.

She co-founded Stellar Quines Theatre Company, still one of Scotland's most highly regarded touring companies.

In 1990 Lynn became Head of Acting at Queen Margaret University College. She became an active member of the National Council for Drama Training and the Conference of Drama schools.

We are delighted she is to adjudicate our festival - this is a whole new role for her.
