present

"DOWS DOUGHNUTS"

a Scots Comedy

in three Acts

. .

in

Inverleith Church Hall, Inverleith Gardens, (Ferry Road)

on

Thursday, 3rd March, and Friday, 4th March, 1960, at 7.30 p.m.

Admission Programme - 2/6d, Children - 1/3d.

"DOW'S DOUGHNUTS"

Characters

ANDREW JAMIESON, the father	Johnny Johnstone
MRS. JAMIESON (MARY), the mother	Nancy Redman
JEAN, their eldest daughter	Margaret Rennie
MARGARET, their second daughter	Jill Gamley
BSTTY, their youngest daughter	Elspeth Anderson
ROBERT, their son	B. Malcolm Short
MISS JAMIESON (JESSIE), Mr. Jamieson's sister	Jean Redman
DAVID DOW, owner of Low's bakery business	Norman Anderson
FRED FREW, a poet	Ian Cunningham
MRS. DICKSON, a snob	Nancy Watson
MRS. MACKENZIE, general factotum to the Jamieson family	Jeana McKirdy

Producer	Reta Cumming
tage Manager	George Watson
Electrician	Jim Bennett

ACT I

Scene	I		Evening
Scene	II		Some days later
		ACT II
Scene	I		A fortnight later - night before whist drive
Scene	II		The night of the whist drive
		ACT III
Scene	I		A year later - thres weeks before Jean's wedding to David
Scene	II		Three years later

The St. Serfs Players acknowledge with grateful thanks the use of the Inverleith Church Hall for this Production.