

We hope that you will enjoy our production of this light hearted play by Arthur Lovegrove which was first performed in London in 1961 with Irene Handl in the title role.

The players meet regularly on Monday evenings (7.45) at the Hall and we would be pleased to welcome anyone interested in acting or in the many back-stage activities.

The Churchs' Drama Federation will again be holding its one-act play festival at the end of May in our Halls and we plan to stage at least one entry.

ST. SERF'S CHURCH PLAYERS

present

GOODNIGHT MRS. PUFFIN

by

Arthur Lovegrove

on

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday

19, 20 and 21 January 1977

GOODNIGHT MRS. PUFFIN

C A S T
(in order of appearance)

The action of the play passes in the drawing room of the Fordyce family at their house in Hampstead in 1960.

ACT I

A week before Christmas - about 4 p.m.

ACT II

Later that evening.

ACT III

Three days later - Evening.

(During Act III the lights are lowered for a few moments to denote the passage of one hour).

ETHEL FORDYCE	Nancy Redman
JACQUELINE FORDYCE	Eileen Bennett
PAMELA FORDYCE	Alison McCallum
NICHOLAS FORDYCE	Alan Lucas
ANNIE	Helen Wilson
AMELIA PUFFIN	Jeana Elliott
HENRY FORDYCE	Ian Cunningham
STEPHEN PARKER	Norman Anderson
VICTOR PARKER	Donald Grant
ROGER VINCENT	Gilbert Nisbet

THE PLAY PRODUCED BY EDDIE BIDDIE.

Refreshments will be on sale in the small hall at both intervals. Arrangements are in the capable hands of Jessie Johnstone and Jean Burgoyne.

Stage Director	Pat Haydon
Decor	Trevor Garlick
Lighting	Gilbert Stewart
Sound	Stuart Larnach
Continuity	Dorsay Larnach
Costume and Properties	Jeane Dryburgh Jennie Biddie

" GOODNIGHT MRS PUFFIN"

"Goodnight Mrs Puffin"

As we thankfully retire,
Home to fire and loved ones,
Home, to dream no more.

Scripts can now be cast aside,
Words can be forgot,
Scenery be taken down,
But friendships not forgot.

Comradeship in plenty,
We have had our fill,
But dear old Mrs Puffin,
We dream of you no more.

Jackie safely married,
To her bloke to do with water,
Pamela and Victor,
Go safely to the altar.

Mr Parker has lost his son,
But now has gained a daughter,
All thanks to Mrs Puffin,
Her dream it would not alter.

The parents now can breathe again,
The unions are made,
Nick can now retrieve the pot,
To share between the brides.

Our thanks to Mrs Puffin
Her dream has all come right,
And as the curtain falls again,
In unison we shout "Goodnight".

Oliver M. Callum

The latest news is broken

A telegram arrived

The clock has stopped at ten to four

His dreams were all described